

Nested

Garden green spring
Soft breeze and light
A dainty painted dish
filled with forage
of sunflower, milo and millet
seeds abandoned.

Now serving as a nursery
Nestled in the center
one solitary blue
cradled in twigs and grasses Expectation of wonderment.

Bighorn Ram

He glares at me
Intensely Unblinking
Majestic snow tipped horns aimed at me.
Mountains frame his stalwart stance
What are you? In my world?
Interloper.

We, Three

A flashing of colors
And bubbles arise
Think you are clever?
Think you are wise?
Well, we can still learn ya
Since we swim in a school.
Your hook and your line
Won't catch us this time!
